Customer Reviews

A "Brass Tacks," tell-it-like-it-is primer on all the ins and out of buying a franchise. Lots of valuable cautionary advice and stories of people who had successes in franchise ownership as well as folks who rushed into a franchise ownership only to find it was not a match for them. O'Brien urges everyone to really study all aspects of owning a franchise--from whether following a strict system is a match for your personality to whether the operating hours of the business will work for your situation. And she warns that franchises are AWARDED, not PURCHASED, so having the correct approach and attitude throughout the interactions with the franchisor is paramount to success in achieving the goal of ownership. Surprisingly to me, O'Brien says that having a franchise coach does not cost the buyer additional funds. The franchisors see so much value in a coach, they pay the fee. Sounds like a win-win to me!

Fantastic Read, if thinking of a Franchise or not!!
