Customer Reviews

It has some theology in the new testament section I don't agree with. That's why I gave it 4 stars. It would be better not to go there. The example is that it says repentance is required for salvation and says you need to repent to receive salvation. With their definition that is not correct. It equates repentance with asking for forgiveness. This theology is something that was added in Christian circles over time but when the bible was penned, the Greek word simply meant a change of mind. So, if you say that you must repent, change your mind of placing your faith in yourself or another God, for salvation that is correct - but to add asking for forgiveness is a common error and I'm very careful not to taint the gospel's message. Other than that one thing, this CD is great. When my child gets older we can get more into theology and will have to unteach this one principal. Actually, we just don't let her listen that that one cd (there are 4 cds). That being said, I love to hear her recite bible stories. The author has a very comforting voice and is constantly reiterating truths about God being the ultimate creator and loving His children.

Almost match for match to Goodnight Warrior, a few words have been changed to Princess which my little girl likes. Our six and half year old has been listening to the Sheila Walsh bedtime stories for over 3 years now. She goes to bed with them on every night and it has been a wonderful blessing to her.

We play these every night. Even my mom listens to them at bedtime when she stays over. She says that the lady's voice is so pleasant that it helps her sleep. I would definitely recommend this product.

Love it. Keep it on repeat some nights in my girls room and I feel like it helps them sleep more peaceful. She has a very calming voice and she's speaking the word of God to my children even while they sleep. ^ I'm happy happy happy

I personally felt these stories were a bit advanced for a 5 year old. I've put them away for her when she's a bit older. The nature of some of the Bible stories is a little violent and scary for bedtime.

I bought this as a birthday gift for my 7 year old girl. She just loves it. I bought the cd too. So sometimes she listens to the story and goes to sleep. And other time she will read the story. Both way work fine at her bed time.

I bought these cd's for my daughter to listen to at bedtime. The stories are absolutely wonderful and the music is soothing as well. I love the fact that my daughter is learning about God while drifting off to sleep. She really enjoys them and I love to listen to them while laying with her a night (sometimes they even put me to sleep before her, LOL!). I am so glad I bought these for my little girl and highly recommend them for all of God's precious little princesses!

Nice bed time stories for our grand daughter. Loaded with wonderful Bible truths. Highly recommend for the little ones to use at bedtime or anytime.
