- Monday with a Mad Genius: They know they have to search for one of the four secrets of happiness to help Merlin the magician find joy in his life again. And so they head off in the magic tree house for Florence, Italy, in the early 1500s to spend the day with one of the greatest artists and inventors of all time—Leonardo da Vinci!
- Dark Day in the Deep Sea: Jack and Annie have to find one of the four secrets of happiness to help save Merlin the magician. But when the magic tree house whisks them off to a misty island in the middle of nowhere, they wonder how they will find anything. As the fog lifts, they see a huge three-masted ship—could it be a pirate ship?
- Eve of the Emperor Penguin: Jack and Annie continue their quest for the secrets of happiness—secrets they need to save Merlin. This time, the Magic Tree House takes them to the one continent they haven't visited before: Antarctica! What can they hope to learn about happiness in such a barren place? Only the penguins know for sure . . . Jack and Annie are about to find out!

Customer Reviews

I have been reading the Magic Tree House books to my 6 year old granddaughter for a couple of years now, and she loves everyone of them!! With the exception of the newest one about Abe Lincoln, we've read and she owns all the rest of these wonderful books. The CD's I purchased by accident, thinking they were the books, but I'm glad she has them. When she's at home and her Mom doesn't have time to read to her, she can listen to the recording and read along in her books! I highly recommend all the books and CD's too!!!

As an adult, I'm good for one read-through of any of the Magic Tree House books. But I can't imagine re-reading the same books over and over again as my niece and nephew so desperately want from me! Thankfully, the audio productions are high quality. We read the books together when my niece and nephew visit and then I'll usually buy the CDs as gifts for them. This set contains my niece's favorite in the series so far, Eve of the Emperor Penguin. My niece and nephew (ages 5 and 7) absolutely adore Jack and Annie. I have read almost the entire series to them over the years, and lately they've started requesting the audiobooks as well. If the number of times they've listened to the CDs is any indication, they seem to enjoy the audiobooks as much as they do the "real" versions! (And I enjoy only having to read the books aloud once...)

we all love this series. We listen to them in the car all the time. My 7yr old loves to follow with the chapter book. My 9 yr old still finds them interesting and my 3 yr old loves to listen to it. Great stories!

I didn't realize they were audio books originally but when I did I realized they were perfect for my 3,4,and 7 year old. We borrowed the actual books from the library for two of them and used them as read a long stories. This was great for my 7 year old to strengthen her reading skills. We all loved the stories and finding out the secrets of happiness.

As a teacher, I have used this series of books in the classroom for years. I have class sets of many of them. Combining the book with the cd gives students the opportunity to hear the story as the author intended, because Mary Pope Osborne actually reads them. It also encourages reading by allowing students who are not quite at that level to enjoy them as well.

I use The Magic Tree House CD's to help my son fall asleep and remain in his room throughout the night. It has worked for me for the past 4 years!!!!

If your kids enjoy the Magic Treehouse series they will like this book. If they are not into this storyline then don't waste your time or money!

received 3 Mary Pope Osborne books from BurgerKing a year ago. Started playing them out of curiosity about November or so. such a success I had to find other books and order whatever I could find in story book cds. they are fantastic. My niece, just turned 6 years old, loves to listen on the way to kindergarten. I was so surprised as to what she retains from these readings. We now have the entire Tree House Collection. Will probably have to try the Odyssey or Greek audio books by Osborne as well.wonderful, wonderful. thanks Mary Pope Osborne.
