Introduction This book is the essence of my hard work and learning experience in the 18 years of my career in the Real Estate Business. Becoming a Real Estate Agent was one of the best decisions I have ever made. The beginning of my Real Estate Career was not easy. Nevertheless, deep down, I knew that failure was not an option for me. Sure, there were times when it felt like I was getting nowhere, but I did not want to quit, I followed through until I reached my goal. My focus and determination were tested repeatedly, but every time I was tested, I remembered these two phrases: "Finish what you started, be the person you know you can be, because your future is in your hands" • "Take action today, if you do nothing, you will get nothingâ. It is important to remember that the sky is the limit, because no one can stop you, you can make as much as you want. The possibilities are there; it is all up to you. There is no shortage of opportunities waiting out there. However, to be successful in the real estate business, you have to educate yourself. Real Estate also has to be something you enjoy doing. The difference between successful and average lies in the real estate agentâs approach to sales, marketing and the courage to work hard. For your real estate business to grow into a successful business, it is essential for you to clearly know what you want and how much money you want to make in the next few months and years thereafter. You must have a plan. In reality, everything in life is based on proper planning and a good foundation. . You will need to set up that foundation for your real estate business, because you are responsible for your success or your fai
