German (Hugo In 3 Months) Book & CD

Synopsis

The Hugo series of popular self-study language courses prepares the visitor for vacation or business travel in France, Germany, Italy, Spain, and Spanish-speaking Central and South America. The books guide the language student through essential grammar, pronunciation, model sentences and word lists to build up vocabulary, conversation exercises to practice speaking skills, and a small bilingual dictionary. Native speakers of each language demonstrate proper use of the language, including the words and exercises from the books as well as specially adapted vocal drills for oral work, making pronunciation easy with Hugo's unique "imitated pronunciation" system.

I highly recommend this book to anyone who wants to learn German. I am an international business consultant working in Switzerland and I have been studying German for the past 5 weeks, using your German in 3 months book and audio CD set. This is the first time since high school that I have tried to learn a language and I must say that I am astonished how quickly I have been able to pick up the basics of the language. I knew my German would come in handy at work, however I didn't know that it would end up saving lives. It is the off-season at the small hotel I am staying in and at this time of year the reception closes at 8 PM. Around 10 PM last night I went down to the computer at the reception desk to check my email, as I usually do before I go to sleep. Soon after I sat down the phone began ringing. I wasn't going to answer it, as I don't work there, but it kept ringing and ringing so I picked it up. On the other side of the line was a panicked woman speaking German. I asked her if she spoke English and she said nein (no). She again spoke in German and I was able to gather that this woman, her mann (husband) and kinder (child) were geschlossen (closed) in their zimmer (room) because their Tor (door) was jammed. I asked her "Was zimmer sind sie in?" (What room are you in?) She answered "Ich bin am zimmer hundertelf." (I am in room 111.) I went upstairs and sure enough the door was jammed. From the other side of the door I could hear the woman say, "Schnell bitte! Mein kinder ist furchtbar Krank! Er braucht insulin!" I knew this meant that I had to hurry as her child was terribly sick and needed insulin. I told her, "Ich helfe Ihnen. Ich rufe den Chef." (I help you. I call the manager.) I telephoned the manager and he came right away and opened the door.
