Being able to read 16 books that all have the same theme of mail order brides and finding them to all be creatively different, makes these short stories enjoyable.

As I have said before, I really wish these books are much longer. Especially since they compliment each other as a set. It is great clean writing.

These are quick read stories and are quite enjoyable. Provided some information about life out west in the 1800's. Give them a try.

Katie Wyatt should seriously consider using an editor. While I mostly enjoyed this collection, the errors were distracting.
