Betrayed: Amish Mystery (Ettie Smith Amish Mysteries Book 7)

Synopsis

When Amish woman, Paula Peters, is brutally attacked and left for dead, Detective Kelly requests that elderly Ettie Smith and her sister, Elsa-May, ask questions within their Amish community. The detective arrests a local woman for the attack, but Ettie and Elsa-May suspect that she has been framed. When they discover that the woman's husband, Cameron George, is Paula's former boss, they are more than certain they're right. The problem is, Cameron is a former police officer, and Detective Kelly insists that Ettie is wrong about him. When Detective Kelly finally concedes that the woman might have been framed, he turns his suspicions to a young Amish man. Can Ettie and Elsa-May find evidence that Cameron has framed his wife before Kelly arrests another innocent person for the crime? Will Paula wake up and identify the person responsible for assaulting her? Customer Reviews

I waited for this to come out after reading all the previous books in the series and was not disappointed. Ettie and her sister, Elsa-May, have a fine time when a friend and new Amish convert is brutally attacked. A twisted plot ensues.

I loved this book . It kept my interest all the way through the book. A lady Paula was almost murdered. Etta, and Elsa Mae were asked to help detective Kelly find out who done this horrible deed to an Amish woman. The two ladies are hot on the trail . Will they solve the case before detective Kelly??? Just read please.

I have always enjoyed Samantha Price mystery. I like the two elderly woman who help solve the murders along with the police. This story had me a little baffle but I did kind of figured out who it could have done it. Characters are great a very clean story.

Great reading Amish mystery. I've read everyone of these and I hope there are more coming. They would be good on the TV.

The best yet. I loved it it was such a good mystery with an ending I didn't see coming. This one was the best so far.
