The Boss Baby (Classic Board Books)

Synopsis

A new baby shows everyone who's really in charge in this hilarious board book from Caldecott Honoree Marla Frazee. From the moment the baby arrived, it was obvious that he was the boss. The boss baby is used to getting his way—drinks made to order 24/7, a private jet, and meetings around the clock. But when his demands aren't getting proper responses, he has to go to new lengths to achieve the attention he deserves. Marla Frazee brings her signature wit and humor—along with adorable illustrations—to a book that explores the effect of one family's very unusual new arrival. This Classic Board Book edition is perfect for the youngest of readers (and the smallest of hands)!

As soon as the baby arrived he was ready to take over the house. His tie was flapping in the breeze and his face was very stern as he grabbed his briefcase and started up the stairs. From the moment his parents laid eyes on him, "it was obvious that he was the boss." His briefcase was open wide and a schedule that wouldn't quit was laid out for them from one end of the room to the other for them to learn. His "office" was his walker "right smack-dab" in the living room. He had his baby monitor on his right and supplies like a rattle and bottle on the left. His face showed that he meant business. BIG business! He was bossy, indignant, and oh so moody. If things didn't go his way . . .

well, have you ever seen anyone having a fit? He had lots of "meetings" with his parents, parents who had puzzled looks on their faces, made goofy smiles when he yelled, looked totally perplexed at times, and scratched their heads when he flayed around on the changing table. And then there were those middle of the night meetings that some people didn't appreciate. Of course there were "plenty of perks" for someone so powerful. It was such a great life being a boss baby, but one day something unusual happened. Try as he might, no one was responding to him. What was happening with his employees? This is one darling, hilarious book that families with a new baby are certainly going to appreciate. Of course anyone who has had a new boss baby come into the house will honk with laughter at this baby's antics. Every new baby really is the "boss" and dominates their household. Every experienced parent will roll their eyes as they watch this little boss twist his parents right around his little (very little) finger.
