She did what she could, but times were hard and life could be dangerous, especially with an old, demented woman living across the field. Every day, before sunset, the Widow Schmucker would sit out on her weather beaten porch, rocking back and forth staring at Elizabeth's house. Elizabeth had never seen anything so creepy in her entire life, so when her son Jacob disappears, she knows just what to do. But when the police go through the widow's house, they find nothing except a messy house and a feisty old woman. Is Jacob gone? How could Elizabeth possibly recover from the loss of both her son and her husband? Find out what happens in this wonderful clean and wholesome Amish romance mystery story from Ruth Bawell. ## Customer Reviews

I'm only a few chapters into the book & it requires a rating before I could go any further. It's okay so
