Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed this set of books. I had read four of the authors books before. The fifth one was a new one to me. It was fun going to different parts of the country. Having kids be a part of each story gave each a little excitement. The stories all took place between the late 1800's into the 1930's. Historical fiction has always been a favorite of mine. It was nice being back with the Jordan family in Lynette Bonner story. Each story kept me interested. All of the couples ended up coming together as one. Looking forward to continuing on with some of the stories All the authors did a great job.

The premise of having children as rascals involved in the romances was funny and gave a different twist to the stories. They were well written and enjoyable.
