Customer Reviews

I really loved this collection, and quite frankly was surprised at the quality of the books! I mean, I shouldn't have been, because I already loved Janice Thompson's previous novels, but I was not expecting five full-length engaging, fun books for this price! If you do like Janice's work, you will love not only her contribution to this collection, but all of the others as well. I was happy to find some new authors that I enjoyed, and will have fun reading some of their other works as well. I really enjoy books with some light-hearted romance and a little comedy and mystery thrown in, topped off with some Christian values that are not "in your face". These books deliver. Enjoy!

This anthology had me emotional, giggling, intrigued, incensed, and amused. Each story is very different from the others. A fun summer read with nuggets of truth and encouragement imbedded throughout.

I had read a couple of these books before, but fully enjoyed reading them again. All the short stories were good, interesting, fun & so different one from the other. Loved this collection.
